PRAYER CORNER

"Lord, it is good that we are here."
Matthew 17:3

Dear Lord,

We pray that everyone may know You. We need to spread Your joy. Our prayers need to be said with deep intention, not mechanical recitation. There is so much sorrow and pain- so much insecurity and loneliness in the world. All of us experience many emotions yet the reality of You is our center-our anchor. Faith in You and Your Church grounds us while giving us hope. During Mass there is an incredible awareness of You. Please help us share this better? You know each one of us. We hope to see faith in You lived out through each of our family members and friends. Open all eyes to Your goodness.

Please accept our offerings of any pain? Use it for some good. Guide us to serve You better. For the ways You keep carrying us, Lord, thank You! We don't always have the right-poetic words but our hearts are full, overflowing with love for You. Make us one in You.

Love, Always,

Your Children

We have so many wonderful things happening within our community for the Lenten season! There are weekly stations of the cross on Fridays at 7pm, Lenten Confessions, and the spiritual preparations all are on in their individual journeys and conversions leading into Holy Week! We also look forward to the formation of our SMOT YOUTH GROUP, the Easter Egg Hunt on Palm Sunday, and all the other ongoing ministries we are so appreciative to experience and join in together. Please get involved and continue to pray for one another & our Parish.

Faithful Reflections

Dear Friends,

Going up a mountain can be a special occasion for anyone who has the opportunity. Jesus often taught his disciples and others on mountains, so they were already special places for him. In today's Gospel reading something even more special happened when Jesus took Peter, James, and John up the mountain with him and there Jesus was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. That must have been an incredible experience for those disciples to witness and a life-changing moment for them to consider.

Upon hearing God's voice on the mountain, the disciples prostrated themselves in fear, but Jesus touched them and told them not to be afraid. Jesus received his vocation from the Father and was even more ready to teach and to heal and show the love of God to everyone he encountered. Now he wanted his disciples and all of us to understand that our vocation is to listen and to be taught by Jesus. The Father tells us, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." As we continue our Lenten journey it is truly at the heart of who we are as disciples of Jesus to listen and to understand that he leads us in the ways of being loving and self-giving during Lent for sure, but also each day of our lives.

Let our Lenten sacrifice and our Lenten prayer be that we might more and more understand what it means to be loving as Jesus is loving, to forgive, as Jesus forgives, and to give of ourselves to our sisters and brothers so that through us they might come to know Jesus, our Lord, our Savior, and our brother.

Peace,
Fr. Steve Leva

Faithful Reflections by Rev. Leonard Peterson

One of the most widely read and highly acclaimed religious books for over twenty years, God of Surprises, takes readers on a spiritual journey of discovery and change. Jesuit Gerard Hughes encourages you and me to realize the truth of Jesus' words—"The Kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field"—and suggests ways to find that treasure within ourselves.

We cannot know their inner lives, but we can know for sure that three holy leaders of the early Church, namely the apostles Peter, James and John got a personal invitation from their Master to know Him as "the God of surprises." As Matthew calmly declares, in a matter-of-fact tone: "He was transfigured before them." Forced to avert their eyes, the three men were shocked and in awe. They saw, for a brief time, what we all desire to see for eternity: the Divine Face of Christ.

It is a good thing for us to know, this showing of Christ's divinity. That is so because in this life we are marked men and women, marked, that is, with Christ's favor, that often looks like disfavor when it comes into our lives disguised as pain.

Let us face facts. Our God is a demanding Person. Never asking us to endure hurt and pain that is beyond our strength to do so but suffering any way you care to define it. He has that right. He has made wonderful promises to us if we obey and accept the troubles that are sent our way to test us. He wants us to succeed. And we will. If we remember the transfiguration.

The man Abraham, featured in our First Reading today, certainly learned that God is a God of Surprises. Here he was, at age 75, long past the time to put his feet up and enjoy his grandchildren, when God asks him to pull up stakes, march to a new and strange land, and only set up his tent when he reaches the new landscape.

Abraham, Peter, James, and John all belong to a long line of persons lovingly created to give God glory that includes you and me, are asked to love deeply and "walk humbly with our God." When it is time for us also to see Him "as He is" He has promised us we will be happily surprised.
