Faithful Reflections

Dear Friends,

“Then the angel said to the women in reply, “Do not be afraid! I know that you are seeking Jesus the crucified. He is not here, for he has been raised just as he said.”

Happy Easter my friends, and a special welcome to anyone who may be visiting us for this beautiful celebration, we are so happy that you chose to be with us here at Saint Martin of Tours Church. In the name of our parish staff, I wish all of you a very blessed and glorious Easter. I read a quote from Saint Athanasius that stated, “The fifty days from the Sunday of the Resurrection to Pentecost Sunday are celebrated in joy and exultation as one feast day, indeed as one ‘great Sunday’. These sacred days of Easter are an incredible gift from God who gave his Son so that we might have eternal life and the forgiveness of our sins, that my friends is the Father’s complete love for us and the greatest gift we can ever hope for.

As we gather week after week to rejoice in the Easter blessings of Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, may we always be aware of the love of our God, who out of pure love for all of us, his children, saved us by the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus. Let our lives and our actions, all we say and do be a sign of God’s goodness to us and inspire us to share that goodness with others.

Enjoy your Easter Sunday, and may we always proclaim Christ crucified and resurrected with our very lives.

Easter Peace,

Fr. Steve Leva

Faithful Reflections by Rev. Leonard Peterson

The arrival of “AI” in our world, particularly its proven ability to fool our eyes into believing that what we are seeing is reality when all along it is artificial, can make us doubtful observers. That has the cumulative effect of turning us all into being suspicious types.

What has this to do with Easter 2026? I would suggest that the doubts or the denial that non-believers have all along professed about Jesus’ resurrection could be bolstered if they are strong “AI” converts. acting mostly on emotion.

Meanwhile, the collection of witness statements that we will be hearing and reading about in our bibles for the next 50 days are too real and strong to deny. The fact that the Apostles and many early disciples faced death rather than deny what they believed is more proof, if you happen to need any.

What is left to us is an application of a principle usually attributed to one Steven Covey. He wrote this: “The main thing is to keep the main thing the main thing.” It is a powerful reminder to focus on our highest priorities. We must avoid distractions and dedicate energy to what truly matters for achieving our goals, whether in leadership, or personal development or Christian spirituality. It means identifying our core objective (life with Christ forever in heaven) and constantly re-aligning our efforts with it (e.g., making regular Confession), rather than getting sidetracked by less important tasks.

To cite just one example. We have noise of all kinds that distract us from “the main thing.” It interferes with our time to reflect 24/7/365. We must work to get it back.

So, on this special Sunday, we need to be putting side bunny rabbits and all sorts of cute verses about the coming of Spring. Here is the main thing: “Jesus of Nazareth, the Son of God, who was crucified and died for the remission of our sins, was also raised from the dead on the Third Day by God the Father, never to die again.” This is the Day the Lord has made. Let us rejoice and be glad in it! Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!
