Pastor's Page

We come together today to celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. This is also known in Latin as "Corpus Christi". When we come together to celebrate Holy Mass, we can look at this sacred mystery from many different angles, with our focus ultimately directed on Jesus himself. As Jesus himself tells us, "I am the bread of life".

The celebration of Eucharist is central to who we are as Christians. The Catechism of the Catholic Church (#1324-1327), states that, "The Eucharist is "the source and summit" of the Christian life. The other sacraments, and indeed all ecclesiastical ministries and works of the apostolate, are bound up with the Eucharist and are oriented toward it.

Our readings today give us rich images to help us grasp the meaning of "Eucharist". As the Israelites were wandering in the forbidden barren desert, God fed them with manna as Moses reminds the people today in Deuteronomy. Moses also teaches them that the manna is more than just physical food. "Not by bread alone does one live, but my every word that comes forth from the mouth of God." This is a very important lesson.

St Paul in his letter to the Corinthians tells us that the cup we bless and the bread we break are a participation in the body of Christ.

The gospel reading today is from John's 6th chapter. In one of the several "I am" statements in John's gospel, Jesus proclaims "I am the bread of life". This food is essential for us on the journey.

We take Jesus at his Word: "This is my body....This is my blood." In this action and by his Word we believe that Jesus is truly present in those elements of bread and wine, that are substantially changed at the words of consecration.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church defines this doctrine in section 1376:

"The Council of Trent summarizes the Catholic faith by declaring: 'Because Christ our Redeemer said that it was truly his body that he was offering under the species of bread, it has always been the conviction of the Church of God, and this holy Council now declares again, that by the consecration of the bread and wine there takes place a change of the whole substance of the bread into the substance of the body of Christ our Lord and of the whole substance of the wine into the substance of his blood. This change the holy Catholic Church has fittingly and properly called transubstantiation.'"

As we give praise and thanks to God today on this special day of giving thanks, let us pay special attention to the words of the Eucharistic Prayer. Let us be drawn into this prayer and offer thanks for the great gift that is the Eucharist. We give thanks for this wonderful gift of Jesus who gives us himself to nourish us on our journey and deliver us for life everlasting.

Father Casey

PLEASE PRAY FOR THE SOULS OF OUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS

Dominic Matteo

Parish Resources

SPONSOR GUIDELINES FOR BAPTISM/ CONFIRMATION

Church law requires that Baptism and Confirmation sponsors themselves frequent the sacraments regularly.

When someone who does not meet that requirement is designated as a sponsor, it is always an unpleasant (and frequently painful) experience for the priest, the parents of the child, and most especially for the person designated.

The reason a sponsor must be a practicing Catholic is that a sponsor is expected to pay special attention to the efforts of the person who is being baptized or confirmed to live a Christian life in keeping with the teachings of the Catholic Church. In the case of Baptism, sponsors are also expected to assist the parents of the child in their Christian duty as parents, by offering them support through good example, encouragement and prayer.

A sponsor should be a registered parishioner of IHM for at least 6 months. The person should also have received all the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation. The Sponsor must be at least 16 years of age. The Sponsor should also participate at Mass each Sunday. If married, the sponsor must also be in a valid Sacramental marriage.

By issuing a Sponsor Certificate, a priest assures members of the faithful that a person is a Catholic in good standing who is eligible to serve as a sponsor for Baptism and/or Confirmation. Please contact the Rectory during regular business hours to inquire about Sponsor Certificates.

IMPORTANT NOTICE FOR ALL SCHOOL AND CHURCH VOLUNTEERS

All volunteers of our IHM School and Church must meet all Safe Environment requirements mandated by the State of Pennsylvania and the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. This includes all school volunteers and parish volunteers i.e. Lectors, EM, Choir Members, etc.

A list of all requirements are on the school website: iheartmary.org Go to Resources then to Volunteer and all the links are posted there. These clearances are FREE for volunteers.

These requirements are MANDATORY and there will be no exceptions. These MUST be completed or you may not volunteer in our school for any trips, dances or in house activities or any parish ministries.

For the Protecting God's Children session go to virtusonline.org then first time registrant then to list of sessions to find one that is convenient for you to attend. There are classes available through zoom.

For more information call Denise Schmidt in the Rectory Office 215-483-1000. Monday - Friday between the hours of 10 am to 2 pm.

Please note: All clearances are free for volunteers. The State of PA requires that these be updated every 5 years. The requirements of the Archdiocese only needs to be completed once.
