Saint Joseph Church Mission Statement

We have been called together as disciples of the Lord at St. Joseph Parish. We are united as brothers and sisters in the mission of proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ by encouraging the community of faith to grow in the divine life of the Holy Trinity. As a parish family we will witness to God's love and presence through our celebration of the Sacraments, the proclamation of God's Word, the formation of all into disciples and our service to others to deepen our relationship with Jesus Christ. We are a people who are deeply Eucharistic which strengthens us for the mission that has been entrusted to us. We will use all of the God-given gifts to welcome the stranger and build the spirit of belonging within our parish community by feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, and comforting the bereaved. As we fulfill this mission of service, we will invoke the guidance and direction of the Holy Spirit, and the intercession of our patrons St. Joseph and the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Dear Parishioners,

What is the greatest love story ever told? It is a story that is ongoing as we speak; it is the story of God's unfathomable love for humanity; a story that began at the very dawn of creation and has continued to unfold ever since. Out of Love, God created us in His image and likeness, but rather than reciprocate that love we kept on sinning but God never gave up on us. In our first reading, we see a classic example of this. The people had just apostatized; while Moses was in the Mountain, they pressurized Aaron to make a Golden Calf which they took as their god. God saw this and His anger blew hot against the people but even in His anger, His love for mankind remained steadfast. God listened to the pleading of Moses. He did not destroy the people and as we see, God proclaimed: "The Lord, the Lord, a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness." This was only the beginning of the great love story. Mankind continued to sin behaving as Moses described; a stiff-necked people choosing evil over good, material goods over God. At the fullness of time, God, again moved by this unexplainable love for us, mere creatures decided to take our human flesh to be born as one of us, to live and to die for us. In doing this, God revealed Himself to us as Father and at the same time as Son; something that our human mind cannot comprehend. In the last few weeks from Christmas to Lent, to Easter and all through to last Sunday, we have seen how God in the person of Christ Jesus was born, began His public ministry, suffered, died and rose on the third day. We followed how God ascended eventually to heaven promising to send the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, the Advocate and this promise was fulfilled on the day of Pentecost. Today, we are celebrating God just as we have always celebrated but then, today, we are celebrating this divine mystery that is beyond our understanding; the fact that God is Father, Son and Holy Spirit at the same time. To put it in very simple language, today, we are celebrating love; yes, true love – God's love for mankind; a love that made the one only God create us, take our flesh to redeem us and now remains forever with us. This brings us to our lessons for today: 1. God is Trinity. We cannot fully understand God as Trinity because our human mind can only understand things by breaking them down into separate units yet God cannot be broken down. God is one. God is Jesus Christ. God is the Holy Spirit. 2. The Trinity Reflects God's Love for Us. The only reason we speak of God as Trinity is because of God's attempts to show us the depths of His love for us. If God had not come to be born among us out of love, we would not know that God is Jesus Christ and we would not know that God is Holy Spirit. Don't try to understand God, instead just ponder on His Love for you. God loves you so much that He is willing to do anything, I mean, anything for you. Know this: God loves you and He alone can love you this way. He even went to the extent of becoming like us to taste our human condition just to be so close to us and as if this is not enough, He died for us and He continues to be with us right now. Who else can do this for you? What love can ever be greater than this? 3. Because He Loves Us, God Does Not Force Us.* Another lesson we learn today is that God has done everything needed to be done for our salvation but we now have to choose it. As St. John tells us, God came as a man not to condemn us but that we might be saved through Him. Conclusion: Agree with One Another, Live in Peace. Just as there is a fellowship in the Trinity, God desires that there is a fellowship among us. We who worship God ought to reflect God in our lives by loving our neighbours as ourselves; by being united rather than racial or ethnic or divisive.

As we celebrate the Trinity, let us think of our oneness as humans; the fact that we all came from one God and we are all related to each other. If we trace our family origins, we would discover we are more united than we often assume. Stop fighting; you ultimately hurt yourself more. As St. Paul says, "Mend your ways, heed my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace and the God of love and peace will be with you." God Bless,

Fr. Scott

June 2: Saints Marcellinus and Peter, Martyrs—Optional Memorial

Mid-Third Century–c. 304
Invoked by those enduring hardships in life

On February 23, 303, Roman Emperor Diocletian issued an edict that initiated a fierce persecution of Christians. The edict mandated the destruction of Christian churches and scriptures, revoked all legal rights of Christians, and called for the confiscation of their property. In 304, Diocletian ordered the arrest of clergy, forcing them to offer sacrifices to the Roman gods or face imprisonment, torture, and death. These abuses continued under Diocletian and his co-emperors until 311 when Galerius issued an edict of toleration toward Christians. The exact number of Christians who suffered martyrdom during this period is unknown, but it might have been in the thousands. Today's saints were among the first Christians to receive the crown of martyrdom during that period.

There is very little information available about Marcellinus and Peter. It is believed that both were Roman clergy, with Marcellinus being a priest and Peter an exorcist. Both are included in the Roman Canon of the Mass, alongside other early martyrs and saints.

The little we know about these martyrs comes to us from Saint Damasus I, who served as pope from 366–384. As a child, Damasus heard the story of the martyrdom of Saints Marcellinus and Peter from the mouth of one of the executioners who later became a Christian. After their arrest, Marcellinus and Peter were likely given a sham trial, found guilty, and then offered the chance to gain their freedom by burning incense to the Roman gods. They refused. While in prison, the two men preached the Gospel to other prisoners and jailers. To put an end to their evangelization, orders were given to take them to a secret location in a nearby forest, where they were ordered to dig their graves. They did so joyfully, and were then beheaded and buried in that secret location to prevent other Christians from venerating their tombs.

After Marcellinus' and Peter's deaths, their stories became well known. Some time later, through divine providence, two holy women named Lucilla and Firmina were directed to the burial site. They took the saints' bodies and buried them in what is today called the Catacombs of Marcellinus and Peter. These catacombs hold thousands of graves, primarily of Christians, and once also served as a secret place of Christian worship.

In 313, Emperor Constantine the Great issued the Edict of Milan, legalizing Christianity and calling for benevolent treatment of Christians. As part of his efforts to help Christianity grow, Constantine sent his mother, Saint Helena, on a journey to the Holy Land to bring back relics of Christ's Passion. Constantine also built many churches in various holy places. One of those churches is the Basilica of Saints Marcellinus and Peter, built over their catacombs. When Saint Helena died, Constantine built a mausoleum for her next to the basilica, which became her resting place for centuries. As a result, devotion to Saints Marcellinus and Peter became widespread.

At the start of the ninth century, a German monk named Eginhard, who had previously been a secretary to Emperor Charlemagne, requested relics of martyrs from Pope Gregory IV. In response, Pope Gregory sent the relics of Saints Marcellinus and Peter, and a monastery was constructed in their honor in Seligenstadt. After they were buried there, many miracles were said to have taken place.

Although we know little about the details of their lives, the veneration of these early saints has been widespread, and their names continue to be invoked today every time the Roman Canon is used in the Mass. What is certain is that the courage of these saints in the face of death has inspired countless Christians for many centuries. As Jesus said, "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends" (John 15:13). In many ways, everyone who has been inspired by the martyrdom of Saints Marcellinus and Peter can be considered their friends. Though they died long ago, the "friendship" of their witness endures.

As we honor these martyrs, ponder your own call to lay down your life selflessly for others. Dying to yourself—living sacrificially and selflessly—is no easy task. But when the grace of God is alive in your life, you will discover that you are given the courage you need to be a witness to Christ. Pray for the same courage that Marcellinus and Peter had, so that your sacrificial love will make you friends to others who need your witness.

Come adore the Lord in Eucharistic Adoration. The Most Blessed Sacrament is exposed upon the altar

Monday-Saturday from 8:30am-9:30am.

As Catholics, we believe that Jesus Christ is truly present in the Eucharist. It is both the source and summit of our lives as Christians. In order to connect more fully with Christ, we want people to spend time with Jesus. While we gather each weekend and through the week for Masses, this will give us a time to connect in personal prayer and private devotional time with Christ. YOU AFFECT THE LIVES OF EVERY PERSON IN THE WORLD DURING A EUCHARISTIC HOLY HOUR.

Very Important Announcement

Beginning April 11th, the time of Saturday Confessions will change.

The new time for Confessions is 3:30pm-4:15pm.

Corpus Christi

On the weekend of June 6th and 7th we will celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi, which is one time when our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament is exposed not just to faithful Catholics but to all the world.

This is a time when Catholics can show their love for Christ in the Eucharist by honoring Him in a very public way. It is also a wonderful way in which we can show our love for our neighbors by bringing our Lord and Savior closer to them. It is a custom on the Feast of Corpus Christi to have a procession with the Blessed Sacrament.

Following the 5pm Mass on Saturday, June 6th, we will have a Corpus Christi Procession outside where we will stop at 4 different stations on the Church property for prayers, a Scripture Reading and a special blessing with the Blessed Sacrament and then back into Church for a period of Eucharistic Adoration and Benediction.

All are invited.

BREAD OF LIFE

Parish Suggestion Box

We now have a Parish Suggestion Box on the table in the back of the Church. The Suggestion Box is a way for parishioners to bring ideas, insights, and concerns to the clergy and staff. Please feel free to submit any ideas, concerns, projects, or events that would help you and your family grow in faith and love here at St. Joseph's.

Grief never ends...but it changes.

It's a passage, not a place to stay.

Grief is not a sign of weakness, nor a lack of faith... It is the price of love.

Grief, often the most profound form of sorrow, demands the support and compassion of our fellow human beings. Grief support groups provide an opportunity for this kind of help and support. Therefore, if you are grieving the loss of a loved one, we would like to invite you to

Ministry Corner

Ministers of Hospitality

Ministers of Hospitality are men and women of the parish whose goal is to make people feel comfortable and welcome coming into Church. We find appropriate seating, take up the collection, distribute bulletins and maintain our Church as a reverent setting for prayer and worship.

Lectors

Lectors are called to proclaim the Word of God for Masses offered on Saturdays, Sundays, Holy Days and other special services throughout the Church year.

Eucharistic Ministers

Eucharistic Ministers distribute the Body and Blood of Christ at the liturgies on weekends, holidays and Holy Days of Obligation. Some Eucharistic Ministers also volunteer to bring Holy Communion to area hospitals, nursing homes and to the homes of ill and elderly parishioners.

Altar Servers

Altar Servers are Adults and Youth who help the priest and deacon during the liturgy especially at Mass.

Called by Name

Cardinal Tobin is asking us to identify faithful young men (ages 15-35) who exhibit a love of God and neighbor, and who may be open to learning more about the priesthood. To submit names, please visit newarkpriest.com. The men whose names you submit will receive a letter of encouragement from Cardinal Tobin, invitations to discernment events, and support from our Vocation Team. Thank you for supporting vocations!

May is the month of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Here are some ways we can honor our Blessed Mother this month:

- We would like to encourage those who attend the 8am Weekday Mass to stay after Mass is concluded to recite the Rosary during our daily Holy Hour.
- Several statues of Mary will be available during the month of May for you to pray with at home. You can take a statue home for a week by calling the Rectory office to make a reservation. The loan runs from Sunday morning through the following Saturday afternoon.
- We will celebrate May crownings at all Masses on the weekend of May 2nd and 3rd. A May Crowning is a short ceremony honoring our Blessed Mother and is a beautiful devotion for families to celebrate together.
- There will be two Marian prayer resources available for you to take from the church entrances: a small bilingual booklet for learning how to pray the Rosary and a sheet of popular Marian prayers (in English).
- On the weekend of May 16 and 17, we'll pray the Family Rosary outside by the Blessed Mother Grotto after each of the Sunday Masses.

As part of the next phase of the

We Are His Witnesses pastoral conversion initiative, our parish has been invited to participate in a Pilot Program called Parish Mission Partner, joining 10 other parishes – one grouping in each county – working together to strengthen parish life across the Archdiocese. Cardinal Tobin has officially asked us to Partner with St. Anastasia's Parish in Teaneck. From June through December 2026, Myself, the Pastor of St. Anastasia's and our parish leaders will gather to pray, reflect, and plan, with a focus on collaboration, renewal, and mission, including practical ways to worktogether in evangelization, pastoral care, and mission.

To be clear our Parishes are not merging together. This is a Partnership where we will work together to share resources and collaborate with each other. This process reflects a renewed commitment to our shared mission and includes ongoing discernment, Reflection and Planning on how best to align resources for the future. Please keep this effort in your prayers as we seek to renew parish life and strengthen our mission together. More: www.WeAreHisWitnesses.org.
