FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Reading I: Acts 6: 1-7

The selection of seven “good men” picked ultimately by the Holy Spirit but voted on by the community is a necessity brought about by the growth of the early Church. Their task would be to serve the material needs of the community. Meanwhile the Twelve will continue to serve the spiritual needs.

Reading II: 1 Peter 2: 4-9

The author pictures the Church as a spiritual temple built by believers as living stones. They in turn are built upon Christ as the foundation Stone. They also become a chosen race and royal priesthood of the faithful.

The Gospel: John 14: 1-12

Jesus wants to protect His disciples from discouragement and despair at His death. He makes His claim as the sole Savior of the world and the one Mediator between men and God. As such He will grant whatever we ask.

REFLECTION BY REV. LEONARD N. PETERSON

Any holder of seaside property knows that he or she has an obligation to respect the laws of shifting tides and occasional flooding. Neglecting either would prove to be foolish. So, he or she wisely makes sure the house is built solidly on rock, or perhaps on strong piers rising from the sand high enough to escape damage.

The whole strategy can easily become a metaphor for our spiritual lives, which must have a firm foundation upon Christ as our Rock, or on the strong piers of belief and trust, enabling us to rise above any contemporary threat or cultural deviation.

Our modern Western culture follows upon two millennia’s worth of threats to belief—a veritable stockpile of weapons, if you will—arising either from within or, at other times, from without the Church. From within, we can cite heresies that have plagued our community from its earliest days. God chose great saints, holy men and women, who used their prayer-driven insights and called upon heroic courage to fight these enemies of truth and lead the Church to new positions of strength. Often, they were obvious errors, like denying Christ’s divinity despite the Scriptural proclamation.

Today, I believe the threats are more subtle. They cloak themselves in comfortable disguises so that they look just like good common sense. Take materialism, for example—the misguided belief that being rich is the way to true happiness. Most of the people in the advertising universe seem young and energetic and bursting with happiness as they hold a certain product in their hands. Or perhaps they are more mature and tell us about investments that have made them comfortable and worry-free. Just one false tenet of a fake joy.

So we must be vigilant. We must know Christ’s teachings, which are the same as Church teachings, and hold to them when these “storms” come along. As the old hymn reminds us, time and time again: “The Church’s one foundation is Jesus Christ the Lord.”

I don’t understand electricity, but I’m no fool. I’m not going to sit around in the dark until I do. The same is true of salvation. I don’t fully understand how God could become man, how He could die as the basis for my forgiveness, or how He could give you and me a new life. But only a fool would ignore such a great opportunity to build a life upon it just because he didn’t understand it. God love you and give you His Easter peace.

Welcome

A WARM WELCOME TO NEW PARISH STAFF MEMBERS

We are delighted to welcome three new members to our parish staff! Sofia Sulligan joins us as our new Church Secretary and will be in the office on Mondays through May, transitioning to a full Monday–Friday schedule beginning June 8. Robert Phillips comes to us as an assistant in our Parish Religious Education Program (PREP). Many of you have already had the pleasure of meeting Adina Decker, our new Church Office Coordinator.

We are truly grateful for the gifts, talents, and energy each of them brings to our parish community. Please join us in offering them a warm St. Joe's welcome as they begin their ministry alongside our wonderful office team—Jackie, Katie, Deb, and Sue—whose continued dedication helps keep our parish thriving.

As we look ahead with joy and gratitude, we also take a moment to thank Lisa Bellinger and Lisa Weiss for their remarkable 60+ years of devoted service to St. Joe's.

If you have any questions for the church office or would like to submit something for the bulletin, please feel free to call Sofia on Mondays for now, or email her at Secretarystjoseph08244@gmail.com. Feel free to call the main number anytime during the week - 609-927-3568, ext. 10. We are here to serve you and are always happy to help!

MINISTRY OF MOTHERHOOD NEWS: The Ministry of Motherhood's EIGHTEENTH! Annual Pennies for the Poor Project kicked off January 1st. Our goal is, as always, to gather 3000 people to save at least a dollar over an 100 day period to help us make a meaningful impact in children and families lives. This year we are excited to work with Fr. Isdory in Tanzania again in an effort to provide a multi-purpose room at one of his churches. Currently, catechism classes, trainings, social activities and even Confession are held on the ground outside. It would be a huge blessing for the community to have a hall- we just received pictures of the road, or rather lack of roads, especially during the rainy season. They are not able to meet outside many times so a one-room building would make such a difference! This will be a multi-year project for us as it is estimated that a complete one room building will cost $10,000. Please help us spread the word and get more people involved. Donations will be collected after all Masses at St. Joseph's the weekend of May 16th and 17th or at Our Lady fo Sorrows office. Of course, all coins and bills and checks payable to "Ministry of Motherhood" are gratefully accepted as well as pennies. Any questions, please contact Alice at 609-431-0655. Thanks! Thank you so much to all who have supported this project for so many years! A special thank you to St. Joseph Regional School for its contribution to get us started this year!!

“A Story of HOPE: From Fear to Faith”

Wednesday, May 27th at 6:30 PM

St Joseph Catholic Church, 606 Shore Road, Somers Point, NJ

Our guest speaker, Jared Lombardi, MSW, LSW, DRCC is a Mental Health Advocate and Community Activist who founded The Positive Pursuit in 2019. The organization aims to raise awareness about suicide prevention and promote healing and hope in the community.

Jared seeks to reverse current trends in the suicide deaths and drug overdoses while reducing the stigma associated with getting help for one’s mental health and substance use. The strategic initiatives he implements aim to connect community members with life-saving resources and instill hope in vulnerable populations.

Jared is a suicide attempt survivor and has overcome battles with both mental illness and substance use. Drawing from his personal experiences, education, and healing, Jared strives to serve the underserved and amplify voices that are often unheard. He advocates for and supports individuals dealing with substance use, homelessness, poverty, and mental and behavioral health issues.
