A Letter From Our Pastor / Una Carta de Nuestro Pastor...

To my Dear St. John Neumann Family...

Often in discussions of what life in heaven will be like, we think about the continuation of our human life here on earth without all the strife and problems we need to handle. In reality, we have been invited to share with God his divine life. If we are judged worthy of life in heaven, then we will live the life of the Holy Trinity that we celebrate today. Each of the readings this week give a glimpse of the life of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The Lord himself declares himself in the Book of Exodus merciful, gracious, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity. St. Paul tells us that our God is a God of love and peace. Finally, the Gospel of John tells us the love of God is so strong for us, that it seeks our need before his own. So, what will our life in heaven be like? More than anything that we have experienced here on earth. It is beyond our imagination St. Paul tells us in his first letter to the Corinthians. He wrote "What eye has not seen, and ear has not heard, and what has not entered the human heart, what God has prepared for those who love him." So, today we celebrate the Holy Trinity so that we may come to know the life of God to which we aspire to share with him one day.

A Mi Querida Familia de San Juan Neumann...

A menudo, al hablar sobre cómo será la vida en el cielo, pensamos en la continuación de nuestra vida humana aquí en la tierra, pero sin todo los conflictos y problemas que debemos afrontar. En realidad, hemos sido invitados a compartir con Dios su vida divina. Si somos juzgados dignos de la vida celestial, entonces viviremos la vida de la Santísima Trinidad que hoy celebramos. Cada una de las lecturas de esta semana nos ofrece un atisbo de la vida del Padre, del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo. El propio Señor se declara, en el Libro de Éxodo, compasivo, clemente, lento a la cólera y rico en misericordia y fidelidad. San Pablo nos dice que nuestro Dios es un Dios de amor y paz. Finalmente, el Evangelio de Juan nos dice que el amor de Dios por nosotros es tan intenso que atiende a nuestras necesidades antes que las suyas. Entonces, ¿cómo será nuestra vida en el cielo? Superará cualquier cosa que hayamos experimentado aquí en la tierra. Va más allá que nuestra imaginación, tal como nos dice San Pablo en su primera carta a los Corintios. Él escribió: "Lo que el ojo nunca vio, ni el oído jamás escuchó, ni por el corazón humano pasó, Dios lo preparó para quienes lo aman". Así pues, hoy celebramos a la Santísima Trinidad para que podamos llegar a conocer la vida de Dios, la cual aspiramos a compartir con Él un día.

Here Paul gives his final greetings and benediction. A "holy kiss" is the equal of today's friendly handshake.

Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Join us for a Eucharistic Procession on Sunday, June 7, after the 11 AM Mass.

The Feast of Corpus Christi honors Jesus Christ, our Lord, who is Really, Truly, and Substantially Present in the Eucharist. This Presence happens through the change called Transubstantiation ("change of substance") during the Consecration in Mass when the celebrant says the words that Christ Himself pronounced over bread and wine: "This is My Body," "This is the chalice of My Blood," and "Do this in remembrance of Me."

Solemnidad del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo Acompáñenos a nuestra Procesión Eucarística el domingo 7 de junio después de la Misa de las 11 AM.

La Fiesta de Corpus Christi honra a Jesucristo, nuestro Señor, quien está Real, Verdadera y Sustancialmente presente en la Eucaristía.

Esta Presencia ocurre a través del cambio llamada Transustanciación ("cambio de sustancia") durante la Consagración de la Misa cuando el celebrante dice las palabras que el mismo Cristo pronunció sobre el pan y el vino: "Este es Mi Cuerpo", "Este es el cáliz de Mi Sangre", y "Haced esto en memoria de Mí".

Merciful Friends

At SJN, we are called to be the hands and feet of Jesus, carrying His love and light into corners of our community where it is needed. To fulfill this purpose, we are starting a new outreach: Merciful Friends. We offer the gift of presence and a helping hand to our brothers and sisters navigating life's quiet challenges.

How We Serve

This ministry is built on small acts of great love. Whether it's providing a moment of rest or a spark of companionship, we aim to walk alongside one another.

- For our Elders: It might be a warm sandwich and a heartfelt conversation for a couple who misses the buzz of a busy home
- For New Mothers: It might be the gift of a quiet hour and a warm cup of coffee, allowing a tired mom a moment of peace while a friendly face watches over the little ones
- For Your Peace of Mind: For everyone's comfort & safety, all visits will be conducted by two vetted members of the SJN parish

Join Our Mission

We are seeking compassionate men and women willing to offer a few hours each month to make a world of difference. Whether you feel called to serve or know someone who could benefit from the warmth of a Merciful Friend, we want to hear from you.

To volunteer or request a visit, please reach out to Marilyn Schrieber at 704-839-1087.
